EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS.—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required, and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders your manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, / Editors.
SEATON GALES. \

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 7, 1866.

Facts to be Remembered.

The "Southern Loyalists" insist upon it that they are the only persons in the South who are fit to administer the State governments. They claim to be the only truly "loyal" men in the South. Such a claim is contradicted both by their past and present record, at least so far as that portion of them is concerned, who were secessionists or sympathisers with the war at first, but who abandoned the cause from motives of fear. This constitutes the majority of the present "Southern Loyalists," with such men as Gov. Holden and Gov. Hamilton at their head. There cannot be the shadow of a doubt, in the mind of any honest Southern man, that if the Confederate cause had been successful, this class of "Southern Loyalists" would have been foremost in crowing for the Confederacy.

Such men, therefore, who claim to be so intensely loyal, cannot have the confidence of consistent, sensible men in any party. They are political weathercocks, and give the best evidence of their hypocrisy, by vindictive and violent attacks upon their former political friends. Hamilton and Mr. Holden are of this stripe.—No consistent old Union man, nor any true Conservative Union man, now, can have any confidence in such men. Govs. Holden and Hamilton, and such like, only make themselves the more ridiculous and render their political hypocrisy the more patent, by the abuse of the present Conservative men of the South as secessionists and disloyalists. There is more genuine loyalty in the little fingers of every true Southern man, who has taken the oath to support the Constitution of the United States, than in the entire carcases of any hundred such men. Intrinsically, and really, they cannot have the support of any consistent Conservative or Radical, North or South. Those men, who violated their pledges to their own States and people, cannot be believed, even should they happen to tell the truth.

Mr. Holden claims that these Southern loyalists are the best people in the South, "socially, politically and morally." A man is known by the company he keeps. Judged by this rule, he is entitled to his opinion. But it is evident that the Northern Radicals do not think so. They are not willing to trust the government and interests of the South to the "Southern Loyalists." They have more confidence, it is palpable, in the loyalty and in the moral, social and political integrity of the negroes of the South, than in those of these "Southern Loyalists." Hence they insist, as a sine qua non, that the negroes be admitted to equal privileges with the "Southern Loyalists," and the negroes, being the greater number, will modify and control their loyalty, as well as their moral, social and political status.

But consider the lesson taught us in the late elections in this State: The true Conservative men are charged with desiring office, seeking office, in order to keep the "Southern loyalists" under the ban. The late election proves that the Conservatives are indifferent to office. It was difficult in many counties to get them to be candidates. The "Southern loyalists" had every possible chance they desired to run for office. Wherever they had any strength they did their best to elect their candidates and succeeded in a few instances. What does the election prove? First, that in sixty odd counties in the State there are not enough "Southern loyalists" to fill the offices of Magistrates. In thirty counties enough men of that stripe cannot be found to fill the offices of Sheriff. It is doubtful whether there are enough of them in sixty counties to fill the offices of Clerks and Wardens of the poor. The States South of us would make a worse showing, perhaps, for the "Southern loyalists." But even the "Southern loyalists" would not be able to fill the offices in any one county in the State to the satisfaction of the Radicals.

Put out every Conservative man in the State to-day, and the offices could not be half filled in any county. The Radical standard is the "test-oath." Not one in ten of the "Southern Loyalists" could, with a clear conscience, take that oath. Hence the Radicals demand that the true loyalty of the South shall be swelled by admitting the negroes to full civil and political privileges with the "Southern loyalists." But nine tenths of the blacks of the South, who are conscientious men, could not take that oath. It has been tendered to some of them and they have declined it. Let the Radicals ponder these facts. If the real Conservative anti-Radical men of the South are disfranchised and put out of office, the State governments cannot be administered, for the want of competent men, who come up to the Radical standard of loyalty, much less up to the Conservative standard.

The Legislature.

We observe that the Charlotte Democrat states that the Legislature will meet on the 4th. Monday of the present month. The same impression exists in other quarters. This is a mistake. The Legislature assembles on the third Monday,—that being the 19th. inst.

SOME THREE or four counties are yet to be officially heard from, before Gov. Worth's precise majority can be ascertained. As soon as all the returns are in, we will publish the full table.

Elsewhere we publish an article from the Sentinel in reference to the Lunatic Asylum of the State. The facts furnished are indeed of an interesting character, and should be known to all the people of the State. It is an Institution in which many of her unfortunate sons and daughters find a suitable and comfortable abode, as well as the most skillful and kind treatment of their distressing maladies. 'Tis just one of those charities, which the State ought cheerfully to foster and sustain for the sake of our common humanity.—Asheville News.

The Dead of the Past—Interesting Memorials.

We cannot conclude, as we shall be compelled to do for the present, our sketches of the departed worthies who have long since rested from their labors and who now sleep within the consecrated precincts of our City Cemetery, without a word of passing and parting tribute to the virtues of two remarkable women, whose memories are still gratefully cherished and whose names are often pleasantly recalled in many a family circle in our midst. Women go not forth into the busy arena of life to seek those opportunities of distinction which are accessible to man, but, in their sphere and vocation, their triumphs are full as illustrious and signal. The light of their good example is none the less beneficent, because it shines only in the more retired shades and recesses of life.

We have not at hand the precise dates of the birth and death of Mrs. FRANCES DEVEREUX. These, however, are not necessary, where the recollection of a life of uncommon benevolence and usefulness is as fresh and fragrant as though it were but yesterday that its possessor was active in her work and ministrations of good.—Nor are we at liberty to refer other than very cursorily to the prominent characteristics which distinguished the career of this "Mother in Israel," for a reason which we hope it may not be deemed inappropriate to mention: During the long and painful illness that preceded her decease, she exacted the promise of friends and family, that, in furnishing a notice of her death, it should be comprehended within three lines. This was in entire consonance with the christian spirit which influenced all her charities,—to shrink from ostentation, and not even to let the "left hand know what the right hand doeth."

Perhaps no one ever lived in this community, who was more indefatigable and unceasing in offices of kindness and mercy. With a liberality as unbounded as the light of Heaven and a "hand open as the day to melting charity," she accomplished all the good that could possibly have been derived from Christian benevolence, aided by considerable fortune. Less we cannot say. More we would, if we felt authorized to do so, like to utter.

A devoted member of the Presbyterian Church, the parsonage of that denomination in this city is one of the monuments of her unassisted generosity.

She was the mother of Thomas Devereux, Sr., of Halifax, and of the widow of the late Bishop Polk, of Louisiana.

"In memory of Miss ELIZABETH GEDDY: Born Dec. 27, 1771; Died June 8, 1845,—aged 73 years. "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy."

Miss Elizabeth Geddy (or "Aunt Betsy Gaddy," as she was almost universally called) was born in the town of Halifax,—that once famous town, noted, many years ago, as the seat of elegant refinement and generous hospitality, and classic even yet in its associations,—and was the daughter of Col. John Geddy, who represented the borough in the Legislature of 1774. She was living in Halifax at the time of its occupancy by the British, under Lord Cornwallis, in 1781, and used frequently to relate incidents connected with that event which had come within her own knowledge; and her narratives were always given with an earnestness of manner, and vividness of recollection, that did not fail to excite the deepest interest in her youthful auditors, for whose pleasure she generally recalled them. She used to call herself "old 76," and often prided herself that she had worked for the soldiers of the Revolution. Forty or fifty years hence, when the events of the last four years shall have become traditionary, how many of the little girls of the present day, who will then be silver-haired matrons, will be able to make a similar patriotic boast!

Raleigh became her permanent home when she was about thirty years of age, and when it was quite in its infancy,—containing only ten or twelve houses. For some years, she resided with her sister, Mrs. Marshall, whose husband kept perhaps the first hotel ever established in Raleigh, standing on the present site of the Town-hall. She subsequently bought a place on Hillsboro' Street, now the "Exchange Hotel," where she supported herself by taking boarders until a few years before her death. The young girls who boarded with her from time to time (in number several hundred altogether) regarded her with warm affection,—possessing, as she did, that freshness, vivacity and youthfulness of feeling which could enter into all their innocent enjoyments.

Her house was ever open to the friendless and distressed, and her disposition often led her beyond her means in relieving the wants of her fellow-creatures, which made the struggle of life harder with her than it need have been. Even after the infirmities of age had rendered almost every step painful, she could be seen trudging from one end of town to the other seeking objects of charity and an opportunity of gratifying the benevolent impulses of her nature. Her other leading characteristics may be summed up in brief but expressive phrase,—an indomitable energy, a forgiving temper and a thankful spirit. A certain degree of what seemed eccentricity (many instances of which are told,) was superadded to these, but which really was nothing more than the ebullitions of a sprightly, candid old lady, of the "old school."

In the words of an obituary notice, which was published at the time of her death:

"She was one of our oldest inhabitants, and was perhaps as extensively known as any lady in North Carolina. Her whole life was one continuous career of kindness, charity and love. In wishes and in thought, she was the universal friend of her species, and few instances can be found of an individual making such sacrifices as she was in the constant habit of doing to promote the comfort and happiness of others. She lived useful and beloved, and died respected and regretted,—proving, in her life, and in her death, that "the hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness."

Miss Geddy was the sister of the first wife of the venerable Secretary Hill.

We have no apology to make for the detail with which these sketches have, from time to time, been attended. The characters whom we have pourtrayed may be imitated by the rising generation with eminent profit. With a certain degree of appropriateness we might say, (with such paraphrase to suit circumstances as will readily suggest itself to the mind of those who have read these sketches,) to those who smile at the task upon which we have been engaged:

"Let not Ambition mock their useful toil,
Their homely joys and destiny obscure,
Nor Grandeur hear with a disdainful smile
The short but simple annals of the poor."

Radical Meeting in New York—Butler not Allowed to Speak.

A very large meeting, under Radical auspices, gathered in the City Hall park, about a stand which had been erected in front of the Washington statue.

A majority of those in attendance were Democrats and Conservatives.

General Butler appeared on the stand and was greeted with hisses and hooting, and his appearance caused such an excitement among the crowd that it was some time before quiet could be restored.

General Hiram Walbridge called the meeting to order, and introduced Gen. Butler. When his unmistakable face and form appeared at the front platform he was greeted with a perfect shower of hisses and hoots. When he essayed to open his mouth to address the audience, a yell of execration burst forth from the crowd, who swayed towards the stand, as though to take possession of it. A strong police force on duty in the park, however, frustrated the attempt. Again and again Butler attempted to address the people, gesticulating violently; but it was no use, the crowd would not listen to him, and so loud was the noise of the hisses and groans that he could not make himself heard to any but those on the stand in his immediate vicinity.

General Walbridge now appealed to the crowd for silence, but without avail, and he was compelled to retire. Butler still kept his position in front of the stand, attempting to speak every few minutes, but as soon as his mouth opened the crowd hooted and yelled to such an extent that he was compelled to desist. He was greeted with cries of "Beast," "Spoons," "Fort Fisher," "New Orleans," and several rotten apples and other missiles were thrown at him, one apple striking him in the pit of the stomach.

A gentleman passing through the crowd, and observing the strong police force, was heard to remark, "Does it take all these policemen to prevent Butler from stealing?"

A man from the centre of the crowd hallooed, "Look out for your watch, Greeley!" and similar remarks were bandied about.

Finally, Butler, after vainly endeavoring to make himself heard above the yells and hisses of the crowd, was compelled to leave the front of the stand, amid the jeers and cheers of the audience.

Mr. Horace Greeley then followed in a few remarks. On his appearance he was favorably received by a large assembly and during his remarks was frequently cheered.—New York Express, 4th.

ARTEMUS WARD, Showman, is exhibiting his imaginary menagerie in London, and dilating upon the "points" of his various "hanimals" for the Punch. One of his latest and best things is the following:

"As regards Bears you can teach 'em to do interestin things but they're onreliable. I had a very large grizzly bear once, who would dance, and larf, and lay down, and bow his head in grief, and give a mournful wale, etsetry. But he often annoyed me. It will be remembered that on the occasion of the battle of Bull Run, it suddenly occurred to the federal soldiers that they had business in Washington which ought not to be neglected, and they all started for that beautiful and romantic city, maintainin a rate of speed durin the entire distance that would have done credit to the celebrated French steed, Gladiateur. Very nat'rally our gov'ment was deeply grieved at this defeat; and I said to my Bear, shortly after, as I was givin' a exhibition in Ohio,—I said "Brewin, are you not sorry the national arms has sustained a defeat?" His business was to wail dismal, and bow his head down, the band (a barrel organ and a wiolin) playing slow and mellancholly moosic.—What did the grizzly old cuss do, however, but commence dancin and larfin in the most joyous manner. I had a narrer escape from being imprisoned for disloyalty. I will relate another incident in the career of this retched Bear. I used to present what I called in the bills "A Beautiful Living Pictur,—showing the Bear's fondness for his Master;" in which I'd lay down on a piece of carpeting, and the Bear would come and lay down beside me, res his right paw on my brest, the Band playing "Home, Sweet Home," very soft and slow. Altho' I say it, it was a tuchin thing to see. I have seen Tax-Collectors weep over that performance.

Well, one day I said, 'Ladies and gentlemen, we will now show you the bear's fondness for his master,' and I went and laid down. I tho't I observed a pecooliar expression into his eyes, as he rolled clumsily to'ards me, but I didn't dream of the scene which followed. He laid down and put his paw on my breast. 'Affection of the Bear for his master.' I repeated.—'You see the monarch of the Western Wilds in a subjugated state. Fierce as these animals naturally are, we now see that they have hearts, and can love. This Bear, the largest in the world, and measurin seventeen feet round the body, loves me as a mer-ther loves her che-ild!' But what was my horror when the grizzly and infamous Bear threw his other paw under me, and riz with me to his feet. Then claspin me in a close embrace he waltzed up and down the platform in a frightful manner, Lyellin with fear and anguish. To make matters wuss, a low scurrilus young man in the audiens hollored out 'Playfulness of the bear!—quick moosic!' I just 'scaped with my life. The Bear met with a wiolent death the next day, by bein in the way when a hevily loaded gun was fired off by one of my men."

Hon. A. H. Stephens, of Georgia, and the Constitutional Amendment.

MILLEDEGEILLE, November 4.—Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, in a private letter to a gentleman in this city, incidentally alludes to a statement published in a northern journal, regarding himself and brother in the matter of the constitutional amendment, and characterizes it as entirely without foundation. He thinks that the Legislature should reject the amendment promptly.

ILLNESS OF GENERAL WISE.—It is with deep regret that we learn that General Henry A Wise is lying dangerously sick of the cholera at his residence—the old Marshall House—on the corner of Marshall and Ninth streets. He was taken with the early stages of the disease on Saturday, and it has not yet yielded to medical skill. He is under the treatment of Dr. Haxall.—Rich. Examiner, Nov. 6.

The students of a New York college recently perpetrated a funny joke upon one of the college magnates, who is as absent-minded as he is learned. Being in the habit of reading a chapter of the Bible in course to them every day, the students, by changing the mark, kept him reading the eighteenth chapter of Acts for a whole week.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU down in Tennessee is on a new tack. It assists certain radical cotton planters of that State in transporting negroes from Georgia to these plantations, paying their travelling expenses out of the government funds. This will explain where much of the eleven millions appropriated by Congress to support the bureau goes to. The agents of the bureau in Tennessee doubtless make a handsome thing for themselves out of this labor brokerage business. The Rome (Ga.) Courier says an agent of these planters exhibited an order for transportation for an unlimited number of negroes, signed by Gen. Tilson, of the bureau.

The arrest of Conover who found the witnesses that did the swearing required by Joseph Holt, in manufacturing his "conspiracy" roorback against Mr. Davis, will be soon followed by his trial, which will throw additional light on that nefarious transaction. Conover, whose real name is Dunham, was apprehended in New York, and brought to Washington.

The Herald describes Gen. Neal Dow as an enthusiastic and unequalled admirer of Southern pianos.

Dow, like Butler, ought to have been popular with the Southern people—they had such "taking ways," the dear rogues!

A bill for the division of Texas has been introduced into the legislature of that State, but is not likely to pass. The bill provides for the creation of a new State, including all the territory east of the Brazos river, from its source to where it empties into the Mexican Gulf.

At the election in "West Virginia"—so-called—at Charlestown, Jefferson county, 35 votes were polled in a district which formerly summed up 5000! And this is called an election!

At a grand Radical procession a banner was carried with the inscription "We have no fear of negro equality!" They needn't fear it; but may not the negro fear their equality?

A Connecticut Divine, of the radical school, recently preached on a Sunday morning from the text: "We are the children of the devil," and in the afternoon, "Children obey your parents."

Some people see cause for a laugh in the fact that Florence Marryatt has dedicated her last novel, entitled "Too Good for Him," to her husband.

The latest antiquarian sensation is the discovery of an ancient city in southeastern Africa, believed to be the Ophir of the Scriptures.

Mohommedans, Brahmins, and various other sects have fixed upon the year 1867 as a period to be marked by some great and marvelous change.

The Mobile Tribune predicts that the South will be more prosperous five years hence than it has ever been.

Charles A. Dana is trying to buy Ben Wood's Daily News for a basis for a new Radical paper at New York.

An old bachelor, being laughed at by a party of pretty girls, told them, "You are small potatoes." "We are small potatoes," cried one of them, "but we are sweet ones."

The Baltimore Transcript, in referring to the letter from an abolitionist of the Northwest, inviting freedmen to emigrate there, as published lately in this paper, says:

"By distributing them equally over all the States, there would be a general result advantageous to the interests and good feeling of the whole country."

That is just our own view. As long as the negroes are concentrated in the South, demagoguery and an intermeddling fanaticism will make of them a disturbing element for the country. Canting dreamers at the North will send down their ignorant edicts for Southern observance, and ambitious men will seek power and profit by inflaming sectional hostilities. Diffuse the negroes, and the opportunity is taken away. We will never have peace until this be done. The abolition demagogues are alive to the party benefit to be reaped from the present location of the negroes. Horace Greely, in his letter to the North Carolina Freedmen's Convention, advised them not to come North, but to stay where they are; to stay where the Tribune daily tells the world they are maltreated and beaten and murdered, instead of coming to the North to profit by the wealth and the kindness of Republicans. The object of the advice, apparently so inconsistent and inhuman, is at once to keep the Northern people in ignorance of African character, and to make of the negro population a permanent party capital.—Rich. Enquirer.

NOW AND THEN.—We "gladly hail" all victories won by true Unionists. And we trust the day is not distant when true Unionists will everywhere control public affairs, and when traitors will be forced into back seats, where they can reflect upon and repent of their crimes, and where they will be powerless to distract, afflict and scourge the once free people of North Carolina.—Standard, Nov. 3rd, 1866.

"If any person or papers says that it (the Standard) has been influenced by a purpose * * * to divide and disturb the State at a time when all should be united, or WITH A VIEW OF FAVORING A RECONSTRUCTION OF THE UNION, we say, unhesitatingly, that all such allegations are false, and the party or paties making them simply LIE."—Standard July 3, 1861.

Quite a change of sentiment, all brought about by the tremendous crop of "black-berries," about which the Editor of the Standard expresses so much concern.—Goldsboro' News.

The Red String organization, as it calls itself, seems to be attracting attention again in certain quarters of the State. The Standard is berating somebody about talking of this secret political machine (all such machines are dangerous) as if its honor were endangered in some way. If there is any thing in it good, those who in the keeping of its secrets ought to let the world know it. If it be an ally of Black Republican Radicalism, seeking the overthrow of the constitution and the country with it, then outsiders who are guiltless of its crimes ought to know the fact. We trust the thing is dead in these parts. Secret organizations of that sort never did any good, but have often done irreparable mischief. These are days in which we need to act in the light of day, and of reason and common sense.—Asheville News.

RADICALS TAMPERING WITH THE SCHOOL BOOKS.—By this time, at least, every thinking and observing man has ceased to be surprised at anything New Englanders do, unless it should be decent or generous. But the crowning act of their infamy in the way of letters is the manner in which they have mutilated the new editions of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. It is enough to say that the editions since 1861 are no longer reliable, and have no authority so far as Webster is authority; for they are not Webster's definitions, but those of the double-dyed Radicalism of Massachusetts. I call attention to this, as seen in a few words—the words slave, compact, State, and contraband.—Louisville Courier.

J. T. Brown, of High Point, announces himself as a candidate for Assistant Doorkeeper of the House of Commons.

William H. Owen, Lexington, N. C., desires a small school or school connexion. Prof. Owen has had a long and successful experience as an instructor of youth, and has been in time past connected with both the University and Wake Forest College.

The Public Treasurer will receive proposals, until the 17th inst., for the purchase of the valuable State rosin beds in Johnston county.

The Public Treasurer will receive proposals, until the 1st prox., for $50,000 of coupon bonds of the State, to be issued on account of the Western N. C. R. R. Co.

Davis and Jones receive fresh and fine Nansemond oysters every evening, which they sell at the exceedingly low price of $1.25 per gallon.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE CITIZEN.—We are pained to announce that HENRY D. TURNER, Esq., one of our oldest citizens, died at his residence in this city last night. Mr. Turner had been in failing health for some time past. He was known all over the State in connection with the N. C. Bookstore, which has been an "institution" in Raleigh for many years,—we hardly know how many. Mr. Turner was a moral, upright and estimable gentleman.

We are requested to give notice that there will be a meeting of the Merchants and Tradesmen of the City, to morrow morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Court House, for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the Funeral and do proper honor to Mr. Turner's memory.

WE LEARN that W. H. Holleman, Esq., has purchased the vacant lot on the burnt district, Market Square, formerly owned by Mr. Samuel Rowland. We presume that Mr. H. contemplates the erection of a brick store on the premises. Improvement is the order of the day.

RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT.—An excellent opportunity will be presented on the 27th instant by Messrs. B. P. Williamson & Co., Commission Merchants and Auctioneers, to those desirous of investing. It will be seen, on reference to their advertisement, that they have received instructions to sell by Auction the very desirable property near this city, belonging to Dr. P. Babcock, consisting of a nice residence with all the necessary accompaniments, and twenty acres of well improved land. Besides these, a variety of articles useful to farmers will be sold. See advertisement.

NATIONAL EXPRESS.—This Company has closed up for the present. It is yet undecided, we believe, whether it will abandon the idea of resuming or sell out to another Company. The Adams Express is, however, ready to accommodate the public, and we can bear testimony to the promptness and obliging disposition and entire reliability of its officers and employees.—We owe much to the Adams Express, but the public interests demand in that business, as in all others, honorable competition.

POTATOES.—We are indebted to Gov. Worth for a fine specimen sweet potato grown on his premises. It is a good representative of our good old Governor; it is as sound as a nut and as true as a die.

TURNIPS.—Our friend, Dr. L. W. Batchelor, of Halifax, sent us five turnips yesterday, of the white variety, the largest we have seen. They could not be gotten into a half bushel, and weighed 28½ pounds. That's some turnips, certain,

CLOSED UP.—We regret that the Yarborough House has been closed up. Whether it will be opened soon or not, has not been determined. The Exchange is all the go now, and Blair & Co. do things up brown.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, Nov. 5th and 6th, 1866.—E. H. Pool, H. Comstock, N. Y.; C. P. Cardozo, Norfolk; N. D. Harris, Phila; A. H. Boyden, Salisbury; A. C. Wharton, Clemmonsville; N. H. D. Wilson, Greensboro'; A. W. Mangum, Orange; M. Conklin, N. C.; Dr. Jno. F. Foard, Olin N. C.; E. Wilkes, N. C. R. R.; T. C. Horton, E. A. Gugton, Louisburg; W. J. Hawkins, Warren; Robt. J. Hancock, R. D. Hancock, Newbern; L. E. Stambull, Va.; J. G. Hester, Granville; R. H. Rowe, Tarboro'; Jno. T. Dewuse, U. S. A.; Mrs. Nicholson and child, Warren; R. C. Jones, Va.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the EXCHANGE HOTEL, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given.—The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

The New York Tribune says "an impeachment of the President—no matter how just and necessary—will almost certainly plunge the country afresh into convulsions and civil war, just when its need of peace and thrift is most urgent."

One hoop skirt establishment in New York employs seventeen hundred persons, and uses three tons of steel daily in the production of hoop skirts.

Our Wednesday Morning Dispatches.

The Maryland Elections—Brilliant Conservative Victory! The Radicals Foiled!!

BALTIMORE, Nov. 6, P. M.

The returns indicate a Conservative majority in this City. The entire legislative Conservative ticket is elected. The election passed off quietly.

Jno. L. Thomas (Radical) is probably defeated by Archer in the 2nd. District.

Phelps re elected to Congress in the 3rd. District.

Later.

Without hearing from other portions of the State, the result of the election in this City indicates that the Democrats and Conservatives united will have in the next Legislature 15 Senators to 9 Republicans, and in the House 55 Representatives to 25 Republicans,—a clear majority on joint ballot of 36!

Massachusetts Elections.

BOSTON, Nov. 6, P. M.

Bullock's majority for Governor will be about 70,000, and the Radicals, of course, have elected the full Congressional delegation.

Butler has nearly 5,000 majority, and Banks nearly 6,000.

New Jersey Election.

TRENTON, Nov. 6, P. M.

Moore, Republican, elected to Congress in the 1st. District.

Morriss county gives Hill, Rep., 600 majority over Rogers, Dem.

There are large Republican gains in the State.

New York Elections.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6, P. M.

The returns received from New York are very meagre and give no definite idea of results. Private dispatches from prominent democrats speak hopefully.

It is claimed that Hoffman has over 45,000 majority in New York City!

A summing up of majorities thus far received is thought in private dispatches to indicate a majority for the Conservatives in the State of from five to ten thousand!

The interior is yet to be heard from.

It is stated that a full Democratic delegation is elected from the City.

Later.

Hoffman's majority in the City of New York is 46,425 with one district to hear from, which will probably increase it!

Special Notices.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains from of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of
